on a plan evolved much earlier, but the procurement process was given an impetus as a result of "OP VIJAY". India's Defence budget has been increasing year after year in order to strengthen/modernize the country's Defence. The allocation for the Armed Forces for the year 2000-2001 has been considerably increased from Rs. 48,504 crores during the year 1999-2000 to Rs. 58,587 crores resulting an increase of 21% over the last financial year, keeping in view the emerging needs of Defence preparedness. A substantial portion of the Defence budget is earmarked for equipping the Defence Services with modernized weapons and weapon systems. The funds earmarked for capital modernization during the current year is Rs. 15,980.56 crores which is 27% of the total budget as against Rs. 11,009.76 crores (23% of the total budget) during the last Financial Year.
